HER CHILDREN PURSUE, BUT MAN ESCAPED—URNS ARE FATAL.

Paducah, Ky.—In a drunken rage, Jen Reeves, a farmer living near Paducah, pushed Mrs. Annie Schand into a grate fire at her home here this morning. Her three sons, all under 8 years of age, rushed to the open air to save their mother. After burning a hole in the grate, the boys escaped, leaving their mother to burn to death. The woman, who is separated from her husband, was visited by Reeves, when her sister, with whom she lives, was away. Her children were in a rear room and, hearing a rattle, entered in time to see Reeves push their mother into the fire. The woman's clothing ignited, and instantly she was enveloped in flames. Throwing herself upon a bed Mrs. Schand sought in vain to smother the flames. She was horribly burned when the boys rushed in. The only state-ment she was able to make before dying late in the afternoon was that Reeves pushed her into the fire.

ALL CANDIDATES

but One Are Expected For the Primary Election.

Lexington, Ky.—The entries for the primary election to select candidates for city offices closed—all the announced candidates paying up. Accepting Mat Tinker, in the assembly race. The mayoralty race closed with John Skinn and J. Lewis Wilcox as the candidates. For city at-large, Wallace Muir and George C. Morgan; city clerk, J. E. Cassidy; city officer, John P. Waaner; R. E. Baker; city treasurer, P. P. O'Neill; W. A. Lawrence; assessor, John F. Doyle; and V. R. Campbell; city treasurer, John L. O. E. Hanna.

William Elder, the present legisla-tive representative, has no opposition. The primary is set for February 7.

PUPILS

Are Driven From School By the High Water.—The Ohio Stationary.

Owensboro, Ky.—After reaching the highest mark since 1884 the Ohio river came to a stand here. The water was washing over the curbing on Front street and untold damage would have resulted had it risen a few inches higher. The water in the dressing room at the Grand theater, which is on Front street, was 36 inches deep. Water also has risen to the depth of 26 inches in the Western colored high school. School has been suspended. Scores of cellars about town were flooded.

Preparing To Build.

Barboursville, Ky.—The Louisville & Nashville system is preparing to establish supply houses here preliminary to building the Pine Mountain rail-road, a 35-mile line, which will be built from the Cumberland Valley to the Knoxville division. Surveys were made last year. The line was designed primarily as a cut-off for facilitat-ing the handling of coal, but valuable coal fields will be tapped by the ex-tension.

Thayer Still at It.

Lexington, Ky.—J. H. Thayer, the noted Lexington trainer of trotting horses, says he has not given up his barn at the trotting track here, but will continue in possession of it. Mr. Thayer expects to do some training at Memphis this spring, and Thornton Moore, who recently purchased the good horse Judge Parker of W. L. Spears, will have his horses in Thayer's barn at the local track.

May Use Oil.

Georgetown, Ky.—The mission of T. W. Allan and Linden Bates, Jr., of New York, consulting engineers, has been a testing of the relative value of the oil at the Indian refining plant here to that of coal. The test appears to have been satisfactory, and if so, it will be recommended to supplant coal on several large lines of railroad and water transportation in the east.

Wants Tobacco.

Lexington, Ky.—W. T. Dunnington of Farmville, Va., the largest exporter of tobacco in this country, is in the city looking over tobacco and has ex-pressed his intention of leaving large orders with tobacco houses here for their best burley tobacco for shipment to England, Italy, Germany, Austria, Holland, France and even Africa and Asia.

Flood Damage Placed at $250,000. Augusta, Ky.—President G. W. Stevens, of the C. & O., estimates the flood damage to this, the Cincinnati division, at $250,000. He has given $500 to flood sufferers here. Electric light and telephone service can not be resumed for several days as the poles of both were destroyed by float-ing logs.

Supplies Exhausted.

Louisville, Ky.—Nearly all railroads are running on schedule time. The city authorities have distributed 10,000 bushels of coal. The supply is ex-hausted, and, as a consequence, many of the poverty-stricken flood victims on the "Point" are suffering keenly.

Babe Burned To Death.

Barboursville, Ky.—The 5-year-old daughter of Henry Fugate was burned to death. The child's clothing ignited from an open grate. Her father was seriously burned in an effort to smother the flames.

HUNTING FOR TROUBLE.

"I've lived in California 20 years and am still hunting for trouble, in the way of burns, sores, wounds, boils, cuts, sprains or a case of piles that Bucklen's Arnica Salve won't quickly cure," writes Charles Walters, of Alleghany, Sierra county. No use hunting, Mr. Walters; it cures every case. Guaranteed by all druggists 25.

FOR SECOND PLACE

Cox Is Willing To Run, But He Wants Bradley at the Head.

Maysville, Ky.—Senator W. H. Cox, in an interview, admitted that he would accept the nomination for lieuten-ant governor, or state auditor on the republican ticket next year. He has been me-tent to head the ticket, but he says he regards ex-Gov. Bradley as the most available man the party could put forth for the governorship. With Bradley, he says, the repu-blicans of Kentucky have it within their power to win a decisive victory at the next election.

Senator Cox further stated that Hon. A. E. Wilson, of Louisville, or Judge Helt, of Frankfort, would make first-class material for governor, and he would heartily support either of them but prefers Bradley as first choice. It seems certain that Senator Cox will occupy a leading place on the ticket.

DOCTOR FOUGHT

For His Life With the Burning Girl, Who Died in Agony.

Owensboro, Ky.—Miss Ethel Brady, the 15-year-old daughter of James Brady, of the Stanley neighborhood met death in a most horrible manner. The young woman was standing before an open grate when her dress caught fire and enveloped her in a mass of flames. She ran screaming from the house.

Dr. Dawson, who was passing the house at the time, rushed to her rescue. The frightened girl threw her arms about him, and it was necessary for the doctor to use force before she release her hold on him.

He threw her in the mud and roll-ed her over several times in an effort to extinguish the flames. In the tussle with the girl the doctor's leg was lacerated and he was severely burned. The girl died in agony in a few hours.

DYNAMITE CARTRIDGE

Was Found in Path Leading To Judge Young's Courtroom.

Mt. Sterling, Ky.—A sensation was created here when a new dynamite cartridge was found on the front steps leading to the courthouse, within a few feet of the grand jury room where the jury was in session.

Since Judge Young has been on the bench he has incurred the hatred of the lawless element, many of who have been convicted before him. T. finding of the dynamite in the path the judge follows every day of court looks as if an effort was made to in-jure him or to frighten the grand jury from continuing its work.

NEW TEMPLE

Dedicated By Shriners Before Many Visitors.—Lexington News.

Lexington, Ky.—Mystic Shriners to the number of about 400 initiated a large class into the order here, the exercises being held at the Woodlawn Park auditorium. The new lodgeroom was dedicated with a reception and dance. The visitors were mostly from Louisville, but Covington, Newport, Paris, Danville, Bowling Green, Rich-mond and Winchester and other towns were also well represented.

Mining For Lead.

Escondido, Ky.—The Kentucky Min-ing and Development Co., of which Lewis Fritz, of Covington, is president, and which is developing a lead mine near Millersburg, has secured the min-ing and mineral rights on the Huff-man, Barnes, Grimes, Clark, Purdy and other adjacent farms, covering about 1,000 acres. The company is incorpo-rated for $100,000.

After Thirty-Six Years.

Louisville, Ky.—T. L. and A. E. Mott-ley, who were injured 36 years ago in an accident on the L. & N. railroad, and who compromised by accepting free annual transportation for life, filed suit to recover $10,000 from the company. They base their claim on the Hepburn bill, which prevents the issuance of free transportation.

Ask $150,000 Damages.

Serent, Ky.—J. B. McMillin and W. H. Kibbourn are at Whitesburg taking depositions in the big damage suit against the Continental Realty Co., a Baltimore corporation whom McMillin & Kibbourn are suing for $150,000, claiming a failure to take and pay for 50,000 oak trees, according to alleged contract.

Found Dead In Bed.

Hopkinsville, Ky.—Ross E. Ford, aged 55 years, a prominent business and club man, committed suicide at the Hotel Latham. He was found dead in bed with a bullet in his brain and a revolver in his hand. He was de-pendent, owing to continued ill health.

Jeffers Appointed.

Frankfort, Ky.—Circuit Judge R. L. Stout has appointed Walter Jeffers master commissioner for this county, to succeed Horace Posey, who has held the office for the past 12 or 15 years. The place is supposed to average about $2,000 a year in fees.

Houses Floated From Foundations. Owensboro, Ky.—The water stands within a foot of the mark of 1884. Eleven houses in the Indiana bottoms, opposite Owensboro, have been floated from their foundations. A double log house, 100 years old, was among them.

THE House Judiciary Committee has favorably reported the bill prohibiting the shipment of whiskey from one State into local option territories in another State. By all means it should become a law. The law passed at the last session of the Kentucky Legislature, prohibiting the shipment of whiskey from one county into local option county, is as it stands to-day a dead letter, the home manufacturer being prohibited from shipping his own product, yet his competitor just across the line in another state can ship all he can sell (which is a plenty) and the fellow at the other end of the line can go and get his jug, get drunk and raise Cain in general, and we call it local option. About the only difference we can see now and one year ago, the cinnati and other out of the State points. Here is hoping that the temperance move on in Kentucky will reach the National Capitol and blow a winning gale through the halls of the National Congress and the bill unanimously passed, however the chances we regret to say, are very much against it.

Says the Somerset Journal: "It's rather a pleasant task which we feel, now and then, in our serene newspaper life, a Democratic duty to bruise the serpent's head and leave the victim to squirm and writhe and hiss and bite itself while filling the air around with venomous exhalation."

We know of no one to whom the above could be more appropriately applied than the editor of The Somerset Journal. But since he got his little job, which as he would say: "those who ought to know tell us," is the first job he ever had, he has had a considerable job fulfilling the requirements of his JOB necessary to hold on to his JOB.

The editor of the Louisiana, Mo. Press-Journal was asked by the Roosevelt Third Term League his opinion regarding the movement. Here's his answer. A nation that survived the death of George Washington and the assassination of Abraham Lincoln and refused a third term to U. S. Grant can get along without Theodore Roosevelt. Them's our comment.

The salaries of the over-worked Congressmen have been increased from $5,000 to $7,500 per year. If Congressmen were paid according to what they do, there are some who would run mighty short on their board bills.

POLITICS AND POLITICIANS

Senator Blackburn who is to be succeeded soon by Judge Paynter, and Senator McCreary who is to be succeeded by Governor Beckham, voted against the proposition to increase the salaries of Congressmen and Senators from $5,000 to $7,500; nevertheless the bill providing for the increase passed, but Paynter and Beckham will be under no obligation to their immediate predecessors when they draw the additional $2,500 a year. —Winchester Democrat.

HON FONTAINE FOX BOB BITT WRITES OF THE LONG AGO.

CRAB ORCHARD, KY., JAN. 29, '07.
MT. VERNON SIGNAL:

I saw in a former issue of the Signal that my old boyhood companion, Walker McQueary, is at Mt. Vernon. I should be pleased to see him. His father and mine were neighbors, democrats and friends. Both in their time were candidates for the Legislature. When my father ran against Berry Smith he came in three votes of being elected, perhaps before I was born I should remember it as my memory runs back almost to the time of my birth. I have been at many a party with Walk at Maj. W. N. Owens', Judge Barnett's and Kersiah Farris'. The seven successful sons of Dall, W. F. Evans, George W. Evans, Joseph James and Harve McAlester, G. W. James, and Joseph Mc. James, were raised in sight of us. Walker McQueary's father, William McQueary was in fine fix. Our father's wealth consisted of negroes worth thousands of dollars and yet not worth a cent. Jim Bobbitt and I had to work ourselves to death to feed our negroes. A negro in Kentucky was no account. We had Hannah, Rose Ann, Gilbert, (my nurse) Joe, Nance Ann, Esther, Green, Charles, Cyrenus, Lum, Chloe, worth about $15,000. I am glad they are free, they are free and so am I. I have never done a hard days work since they were freed and they never did one before. Walker and I parted many years ago falling and weeping upon each others shoulders. I have often thought of him, his brothers and glorious old Dallas. But now all is desolate along the shore 'Tis Dallas but living Dallas no more. I should like so much to take a slow walk to Dallas with my dear old schoolmate. I could tell him many things that took place in our boyhood days. I remember the names of all the near by dogs: Pen Adkins, Tyler Sears, Polk Bobbitt, Sound, Drum and Tip Taylor.

I can repeat a great many pieces and speeches I committed away back at school. The old blue book, which Judge Brown, myself and many others, was and is the best book of its size that was ever printed. Give us our primeval forests, our wild hogs in the woods at $2.00 per hundred. Give us old Time give us back old times, old friends and old kinfolks, and happiness.

Well, dear Walk, I hope I shall have the pleasure of spending many happy days with you before you return to your Western home.

FONTAINE FOX BOBBITT

GRIFFINS MILL.

The second hog crop is now being butchered during the cold weather that has lately been swept down from the arctic regions of the North; as many farmers had held a part or all of their hogs till the warm weather set in and was then afraid to kill them.—The wheat crop which is the principal crop of this section was looking extremely well till the cold snap came which has checked its growth, and made a great change in its color. we are much distressed for fear of a failure; as biscuit is the staff of life. But as Jothan Brown once said when he was quite a small boy, we may be glad to get corn bread.—Quite a number of the boys from this neighborhood went to Mt. Vernon Friday to sell their farms to the Super-visors, but returned and reported no sales made.—Quite a large crowd attended the public sale at W. G. Proctor's Monday; everything that sold brought a fair price. The most noted being 70 cents a head for geese paid by W. H. Mullins. After the bargain was made a gentleman proposed to trade his farm to Mullins' geese and Wade replied that he was not in the real estate business at present that he was in the goose business.—The four months old babe of W. J. Brown was found dead in the bed when its parents woke up last Friday morning.

A. Cummins, of Mt. Vernon, visited his son, I. B. Cummins, of this place, Friday until Sunday.—Frank Catron, of near Stanford, was in this part Saturday looking after live stock of different kinds, offering fair prices.—Isaac Herrin, our clever hunter, makes his regular trips through our neighborhood every Saturday paying the highest prices for our produce. Isaac has been a great help to us as his money is much easier carried to the store than our eggs, ducks and chickens.—D. E. Proctor, our Quail merchant, is closing his entire stock of merchandise out at cost.—Which will I call brother, the teacher or the farmer? After retiring from a six months term of school I went out on the farm the other day and put on the harness, which consisted of a pair of bibboe overalls, a pair of Buckskin gloves, a mattock, briar scythe and chopping axe; and sir, the first thing I knew I had them all kicked off but the overalls, and the next thing I did was to put the same harness on Newt. Denney and Gaines Cummins and they seemed to fit all right, and if my pocketbook didn't have swinney I would work Cummins and Denny instead of myself.—Our winter plowing in this neighborhood is like the man's house that had no roof on it; when it rained he could not cover it; and when it didn't rain the house didn't need any roof. When the weather is fine we don't plow; and when it rains and snows we can't plow.—Mr. John M. Hurst who has been sick for quite awhile we are glad to say is on the road to recovery.—It is rumored that M. F. Craig and Josiah Cummins will trade their farms to Mr. Green Sowder of Indiana, to his graphophone. Hurrah for Mack Pound and Josiah

LOGS ABOUT READY

First Shipment to Jamestown of Material for Kentucky Building Soon to be Made

Before the middle of February it is expected that all logs and timber to be used in the construction of the Fort at Boonesboro, Kentucky's State Building at the James town Exposition, will have been shipped. The building will be completed in ample time for the opening of the Exposition on April 26. Shipment will be made from various points in Kentucky over the C. & O. railway, and nine or ten cars will be needed to transport the material.

Two carloads of logs will be shipped from Christian county and one or more cars each from Warren, McLean, Breathitt, Grayson, Wolfe Pike, Johnson and Powell counties. In addition to the logs, rough hand made shingles or clapboards, for the cabin roofs and strips for the stockade will be sent from this State Mr. Chas. E. Hodge, of Frankfort, is Director of the State Building Construction, on the Kentucky Jamestown Exposition Commission. He has arranged with a contractor at Newport News who is familiar with the construction of rustic hungalows and similar buildings to erect the modern part of Boonesboro.

The Fort will be patterned after the original structure erected by Daniel Boone, within present bounds of Madison county. It will be 150 feet long and 75 feet wide, facing on the beach of Hampton Roads. The main entrance to the stockade will be but a few paces from the ocean waters. Four block houses or cabins will mark the four corners of the stockade, each of these cabins being two stories high. The center cabins connected by a piazza, and each twenty feet square, will furnish the main pavilion for the Fort. Two other cabins will be located near the center of the rear stockade.

As has been previously reported, the site of Kentucky's Buiding is declared by Exposition officials and others to be the handsomest at this World's Fair. The building will be on the edge of a beautiful pine grove of 500 trees, some of the trees growing from within the stockade. A flagstaff 75 to 100 feet high will be raised in front of the main cabins.

In addition to furnishing the Blue Grass State with the most unique home on the Exposition grounds, the Fort of Boonesboro will be a splendid exhibit of Kentucky forestry. Col. M. H. Crump of Bowling Green, Director of Forestry Exhibits for the Kentucky Commission, has devoted much time and attention to assisting Commissioner Hodge in securing the logs for the building. Appropriate inscriptions, will be made of the names of persons and firms furnishing the logs and of the counties in which the timber was grown. Kentucky's Building will be a distance of about three or four blocks from the main court of the Exposition grounds.

The sad news announcing the death, last Sunday week, of Oliver Wallen at Sonora, Tex., was received here a few days ago. His brother, Jesse and two sisters were with him when the end came.

GREAT BARGAIN.—For sale 198 acres land on waters of Roundstone creek, near slate tunnel. No improvements and only such timber as necessary to supply the necessary use on the land. 40 acres ridge land and level. Would make an ideal stock farm. $297 or $1.50 per acre takes the boundary. A bullet entered his abdomen and came out just above the left hip. According to the report, the chances of recovery, are very much against him. Neither of the Dowells were injured.

THE FARMERS CLUB.

The members of the farmers club and all farmers, who are not members that are interested in better farming and a farmers organization, are requested to meet in the court house in Mt. The law provides that each county shall have one vote on all matters coming before the Institute, but does not limit the number of Delegates. At this institute two member of the State Board of Agriculture will be elected to serve four years. As a membership on the State board is an important post our Club should all be present and send delegates who will vote for men who has the interest of the farmer at heart.

At this meeting we will also elect a crop reporter from each magisterial district in the county to report the condition of the growing crops, etc., monthly to the Commissioner of Agriculture at Frankfort, Ky., upon instruction blanks furnished each month.

What Would You Do

If three good physicians should pronounce your case hopeless. If they should decide that you could not live longer than six weeks. And if you should get well, after using only $12.00 worth of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and Nerve, what would you advise a friend in like condition to do?

"I have to thank you for saving my wife's life two years ago. We had consulted with the doctor until the third doctor, after the two previous ones, said that nothing could be done for her, that she had better be taken home from the hospital to quietly wait her time, which would not be over 6 weeks at the most. I brought her home, and then I thought, probably Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and Nerve might help her, so I got a bottle of each and some Nerve and Liver Pills and commenced to give them to her. We soon seen an improvement, and encouraged by this we continued giving the medicine. We gave her eleven bottles in all of the medicine. She takes it occasionally now if she feels the need of it. I am in the ministry, and have been for 44 years."
